

CORPORATE THE 22nd YEAR REPORT 100 NEXTAFF COMES OUT ON TOP

Kansas City's Top 10 Fastest-Growing Companies

- 1 Nextaff
- 2 Evolv Solutions, LLC
- 3 Challenger Teamwear
- 4 Object Technology Solutions, Inc.
- 5 WingGate Travel
- 6 Saicon Consultants, Inc. (not in photo)
- 7 Clickspeed
- 8 MoKan Title Services
- 9 Kansas City Business Supply, Inc.
- 10 GreenSoft Solutions, Inc. ("GSI")

KANSAS CITY'S BUSINESS MAGAZINE
INGRAM'S

61 PREMIER BANKGross Revenue: 2006: $23,129,170 2003: $10,038,539 Growth: 130.40% Full-time employees: 124

2ND YEAR Founded in 1974, Premier Bank is headquartered in Lenexa. Continued growth is "primarily attributed to the teamwork effort of a strong and reliable staff." With the expansion of their mortgage presence and creation of a new SBA division, the bank can expect further success.

62 BART'S ELECTRIC COMPANYGross Revenue: 2006: $14,800,000 2003: $6,432,365 Growth: 130.09% Full-time employees: 95

1ST YEAR After 15 years in business, Bart's Electric celebrates continued revenue growth, thanks in large part to its company philosophy of "going above and beyond for client service." The full service electric and special systems contractor, founded by Bart Walker, is based in Pleasant Valley, MO.

63 BARTUNEK TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC.Gross Revenue: 2006: $1,377,453 2003: $602,821 Growth: 128.50% Full-time employees: 58

1ST YEAR Bartunek Technology Group Inc. which provides technical staffing services to area businesses, strives to control costs while preserving quality. "Increased services and customer base" are to thank for revenue growth. CEO Jeri Bartunek began the Overland Park company in 1989.

64 LIBERTY HOMES, INC.Gross Revenue: 2006: $19,574,795 2003: $8,663,602 Growth: 125.94% Full-time employees: 3

1ST YEAR Headed by Rick Westmoreland, Liberty Homes, Inc. has constructed single and multi-family homes for the Liberty community since 2000. Diversification into multi-family and the implementation of an Internet information portal has stimulated revenues in recent years.

65 FOGEL-ANDERSON CONSTRUCTION CO.Gross Revenue: 2006: $73,292,454 2003: $32,545,939 Growth: 125.20% Full-time employees: 42

1ST YEAR A family-owned operation based in Kansas City, MO, Fogel-Anderson Construction Co. provides commercial and industrial construction services metro-wide. After ninety years of operation, the company has enjoyed increased revenues with the addition of new markets.

66 REDEMPTION PLUSGross Revenue: 2006: $7,198,062 2003: $3,229,875 Growth: 122.86% Full-time employees: 29

4TH YEAR A direct import program, a new facility, and an "enhanced focus on corporate culture" account for the growth of Redemption Plus in Lenexa. In business more than 10 years, the company distributes redemption and incentive merchandise for fundraising agencies, learning centers and the family entertainment industry.

67 LOCKTON COMPANIESGross Revenue: 2006: $667,161,000 2003: $302,353,937 Growth: 120.66% Full-time employees: 3,825

16TH YEAR Insurance industry leader Lockton Companies, Inc. now operates 49 locations worldwide. Founded in 1966, Lockton offers insurance brokerage services, risk management consulting, and employee benefits consulting. Organic growth, acquisitions, the addition of new clients and expansion of work with existing clients have spurred recent growth.

68 ECCO SELECTGross Revenue: 2006: $7,039,199 2003: $3,193,086 Growth: 120.45% Full-time employees: 75

4TH YEAR Since its 1995 inception, ECCO Select has provided consulting and staffing services to clients around the country from its Kansas City offices. The company continues to excel "by providing outstanding service through delivering results with quality and integrity," according to CEO Jeannette Prenger.

69 SHORT CIRCUIT ELECTRONICSGross Revenue: 2006: $7,253,553 2003: $3,324,371 Growth: 118.19% Full-time employees: DD

6TH YEAR Established in 1988, Short Circuit Electronics installs and services audio/video and video surveillance equipment for a variety of clients including national retail chains. An expansion of services to include equipment installation, as well as servicing, helped the Lee's Summit company grow. Dan Israel is CEO.

70 TRUCKMOVERS.COMGross Revenue: 2006: $19,566,794 2003: $8,972,004 Growth: 118.09% Full-time employees: 25

2ND YEAR A truck delivery service that transports trucks for manufacturers, dealers, and fleet managers across the country, Truckmovers.com has enjoyed an influx of new customers due their unique, Web-based logistics system and a larger driver base. Tom Duvall is CEO of the Kansas City, MO company.